

DISCLOSED

SECTION

No. 1995 (5.R)

LLOYD'S LIST & SHIPPING GAZETTE, Wednesday, June 25, 1958

FRIARGATE. — London, June 24. — While dockers were unloading coils of wire from motor vessel Friargate (from Antwerp) into motor barge HENRY HUNT at Hull to-day, using two derricks from the ship's mast, the mast snapped and the derricks crashed to the deck. Edward Fenn, of Hull, was struck by the mast and killed. — Exchange Telegraph Company.

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

012069-012101-0117