Dear Sir,

With reference to your letter of the 3rd March 60, regarding the above ship, we beg to state that we have only now received information. This ship is at Chittagong where she has been laid up for several months. She has been handed back to her Owners and nothing is being done regarding repairs until it has been decided between the Owners and Government as to who will pay for the required survey and repair.

As soon as anything definite is known, we will communicate with you again.

We are, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,
for THE SURVEYORS.

R. Hill

Secretary,
London.
