Dear Sir,

m. v. "FELANIA"

With reference to our letters of the 24th and 28th January and in furtherance of yours of the 25th of that month respecting classification of the above vessel, we would advise you the cost of essential repairs required to make her suitable for a further period of six months, even when taking into account the special circumstances in the Near East at the present time, have proved to be uneconomical. In consequence she has been laid up at Suez pending arrangements as to her final disposal.

Yours faithfully,
