11th September 1895

The Secretary, London.

Sir,

In reply to your letter of yesterday's date respecting the completion of S.S. 121 on the steamer "County Derry" I beg to state that on the vessel being visited the Engineer stated it would not be convenient to have the safety valves of the main and donkey boilers adjusted here, but he would have them done at Antwerp, for which port the vessel sailed on the 4th inst., and the Surveyor at Antwerp has been advised accordingly.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant.

J. Thomson

Referred to the Chief Engineer Surveyor.
