Dear "Rosario"
We went to the expense of classing at Lloyd's on Easter (as assurance that we should no signs of weakness.

It appears to me
that on Chamberlains

On the ground Bill we should have been liable for an unseaworthy
ship if the Rosario
had been lost. ^{although} no expense has been spared on our part.

This legislation will do no harm about
our insurance is much in favor of the increase of competing foreign steamers
