Dear Sir,

The above mentioned vessels are presently laid up but we have been requested to assign new freeboards in accordance with the Convention Regulations, and we are forwarding you herewith copies of the freeboard reports.

These vessels are not being marked presently but will probably be marked before they go into service.

In the meantime we would like to have you look over the computation shown on these reports and let us have your remarks.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

(Sgd.) J. French.

The Secretary,

LONDON.
