

9th April, 1941.

S NEWCASTLE ON TYNE

Cas 11-41

S.S. "SPEY"

64316

According to information received at this Office the above named vessel is reported to have stranded and sunk at Coquet Island, Northumberland, on the 25th January last, and that it was anticipated she might be salvaged in the future.

As no further reports on the case have reached this Office, I shall be glad if you will kindly ascertain and let me know whether any salvage operations are contemplated.

Should the vessel be abandoned as a total loss by all concerned, will you please let me know the cargo carried at the time of the casualty, for purposes of the Society's Wreck Returns.

© 2021

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

W123-0228