Dear Sirs,

Copied

We beg to state that the above-mentioned vessels, which have so long been classed with your Society under your good supervision, have now been faced with an urgent necessity to be prepared for Crab Factory Ships for the coming season in the North Ocean in order to replace three ships of our fleet. In the circumstances, there will be no more hope of their trading as ocean-going cargo steamers in future, and we are obliged to state with regret that their Class with your Society will be withdrawn.

We shall be obliged therefore if you will arrange accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

NIPPON SUISAN KAB. KAISHA.
