LONDON

Dear Sir,

Steamers "ASTER", "GIGLIO" and "PRIMULA".

With reference to your letter of 11th instant regarding the above named steamers, I have to inform you that a statement showing the estimated amount of fees for the surveys during the next four years was prepared by the Genoa Surveyors and sent to Mr. Rippon who in turn forwarded same to Mr. Mazza at Savona on 23rd inst.

Mr. Rippon has invited Mr. Mazza to make an appointment in Genoa, so that the whole matter may be discussed, and as soon as there is anything further to report I shall again write you.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

H. B. Turnbull.

The Secretary,
LONDON.

Dear Sir,

I am, I regret to say, unable to attend the meeting of the Committee on the 1st of August, as I am on a tour of inspection in the West of Scotland. I am, however, sending you a copy of the report of the Committee on the 1st of August, which I hope will be of interest to you. I am, Sir, very truly yours,

LONDON.

Yours faithfully
