Dear Sir,

TELLI,
el Testing.

In reply to your letter of 24th inst. I have to inform you that on 18th inst. I met Mr. Rippon (who is a personal friend of mine) and was much surprised to hear from him of the letter he had written you the previous day . - I at once made representations to him to induce him to change the decision arrived at . - Unfortunately Mr. Mazza who is senior partner was in Rome . - Then Mr. Rippon was taken ill and could do nothing . - On Friday last I met Mr. Rippon again and took the question up but he could do nothing as he had to leave for London on Saturday . -

I will communicate with him to London and ask him to call to see you . -

Meanwhile I will endeavour to get into touch with Mr. Mazza . -

The whole question is one of cost and in this connection the representations I made to Mr. Rippon had, I think, good effect and I think the vessels will probably be kept in class if I can do as well with Sig. Mazza . -

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

tary,
DON . -

A. Mazza

3. = Since writing the above I have seen Mr. MAZZA . -

The result of my conversation with him is that he is giving the decision to Mr. RIPPON . -

If it should be of interest I may add that this gentleman's address at present is : -

London, 30th March 1922

Dear Sir,

I have the pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 29th inst.

in relation to the proposed extension of the London and South Western Railway.

I am sorry to hear that the proposed extension is not to be carried out.

It is, however, a matter for regret that the proposed extension is not to be carried out.

I am, Sir, very respectfully,
Yours faithfully,
J. H. B. B. B.
