Gentlemen,

s.s. "Dundrum Castle"

(Messrs. Harland & Wolff's hull 572.)

With reference to your claim for £17 in respect of survey during construction of the machinery for this vessel, I beg to point out that according to the records of this Department the machinery (no. 572) was built by Messrs. Harland & Wolff, whereas your claim states that it was built by Messrs. J.G.Kincaid & Co. (No. 572.)

I shall be obliged if you will look into this matter, and inform me of the result.

I am, Gentlemen,

Your obedient Servant,

G. Paterson

for Accountant General, Ministry of Shipping.

Messrs. Lloyds Register of Shipping.
