165, Hananochō,

Shimonoseki, 16th February 1939.

(P.O. Box 26)

The Secretary,

LONDON.

Dear Sir,

"MALOJA" Smk.Rpt.No.2310.

In reply to your classing letter of the 13th January 1939, I have to say that windlass bedplate was not renewed at the time of this survey.

I have also to say that facilities did not permit of the testing of the new anchor shackle. It was, however, forged from tested material, examined and found to be, so far as could be seen, sound and free from defect.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

SURVEYOR TO LLOYD'S REGISTER.
