Dear Sir:-

With further reference to your letter "S" August 2nd, 1933, I have to advise you that, in accordance with Item 5 of your letter, I am sending over per the S/S "MANCHESTER MERCHANT" two (2) samples of bottom shell plating; one from the S/S "CHARLES PRATT" marked "C" 12, starboard and one piece from the S/S "F.Q. BARSTOW" marked "G" 7, starboard. These are hardly small samples, but Mr. French intimated that I should send them as received from the yard.

I am advising the Liverpool Surveyors to accept the parcel and will ask them to kindly forward the parcel to your office when received by them.

I am, Sir,
Yours truly,

CJH/MP
