WEST HARTLEPOOL.

3rd May 1918

S. S. Dequesa.

Dear Sir

In reference to the subject of freeboard for the above vessel & our conversation in the subject today ^{with Mr McLellan} my instructions are that none of the Statutory marks should be placed higher on the sides than corresponds to a moulded salt water draught of 29.1 feet. as required by para 10 of the printed instructions relating to the construction of passenger steamships.

Yours faithfully
