Dear Sir,

I enclose herewith copy of my report issued to Lloyd's Agents, Akyah on the possibilities of salvaging the S.S. "BURMESTAN" which sank in Kyaukpyu Harbour on the 30th July 1935, from which it will be observed that the vessel may be regarded as a total loss and in the event of the Underwriters deciding to take no further action in the matter, the vessel's name may be deleted from the Register Book.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Surveyor to Lloyd's Register,
Calcutta.
