H.S.

London Citizen

The attached memorandum

~~The attached reply has been received to~~ ~~query addressed to the Owners in regard to the~~ ~~Survey which is more than twelve months~~
~~ago, the vessel being laid up.~~

Boilers ~~are~~ are not being used.

Submitted the Owners be informed in laid up cases the Committee adopted the General principle when a Port engine is more than overdue, no Boilers should be used if it has been generally examined on water & fire sides. This examination not necessarily involve the opening mountings. Arrangements should therefore be made for any Boilers which may be used the lay up to be examined as indicated steam is a fair view.

Referred to Mr. Spinke

Mr. Copeman
has seen Mr. Bushill
re this matter.
Mr. Bushill will write in.
