ENCLOSURE.

28th August, 1937.

Dear Sir,

With reference to our recent interview respecting the case of the steamer "GARDENGA", I beg to acquaint you, in confirmation of my telephone message this morning, that I cabled the Society's Surveyor at Gibraltar regarding the validity of his Towage Certificate for the extension of the voyage to Germany, and I am today in receipt of his cabled reply, reading as follows :-

"AGREE EXTENSION GARDENGA CERTIFICATE TOWAGE GERMANY".

I enclose an account for the cost of my cablegrams in this case.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

Clerk to the Classification Committee.
