CONDITIONS.

1. The Company or any Telegraph Company or Government Telegraph Administration, by whom this telegram is or would in the ordinary course of the telegraphic service be forwarded, may decline to forward such telegram although it has been received for that purpose; but in such case the amount paid for transmission will be refunded to the sender at his request.

2. Neither the Company nor any Telegraph Company, or Government Telegraph Administration, by whom this telegram is or would in the ordinary course of the telegraphic service be forwarded, nor any of their respective officers or servants shall be liable to make compensation for any loss, injury or damage arising or resulting from non-transmission or non-delivery of the telegram, or delay, or error, or omission in the transmission or delivery thereof, through whatever cause such non-transmission, non-delivery, delay, error, or omission shall have occurred even though occasioned by the neglect or default of such Company or Administration or any officer or servant in their employ.

3. This telegram shall be forwarded in accordance with the provisions of the International Telegraph Regulations and the provisions of such Regulations shall be deemed to be binding between the sender and this or any Telegraph Company or Government Telegraph Administration by whom this telegram is or would in the ordinary course of the telegraphic service be forwarded.

NOTE.—Code words used in the text of code telegrams (CDE) must not contain more than 5 letters. There is no restriction regarding the use of vowels in the formation of such words. By International Regulations the sender of a CDE telegram is obliged to produce the code from which the text or part of the text of the telegram has been compiled, if requested by the office of origin.

If figures and groups of figures, including commercial marks containing figures and letters, are used in CDE telegrams, their number, reckoned in accordance with the rules for charging, must not exceed one half of the number of chargeable words in the text and signature.

Full information respecting CDE telegrams may be obtained from any of the Company's Offices.
