18th March, 1936.

Sir,

With reference to your letter of the instant in regard to the Steamer "GLITRA", I beg to inform you that on enquiry of Messrs. Douglas & Ramsey I have ascertained that this vessel is still laid up at Swansea and that they have not yet decided whether the vessel will be taken up or put into commission again.

I may say that they explain that the contingency is very unlikely, but the position at present moment is ~~very~~ undecided.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

P. L. Warlow

Secretary to the Glasgow Committee.

Secretary,

LONDON.
