communications to be addressed to—
THE SURVEYORS.

Dear Sir,

H.

Messrs. the Holland America Line reported to-day that they have sold their s.s. "MOERDYK" to Italian Owners, subject to a certificate being granted for the vessel to proceed to an Italian port with a non-perishable cargo in order to be broken up.

I shall be very pleased to hear by wire if the Committee is agreeable to hold a similar survey on this vessel as approved in the case of their s.s. "KINDERDYK"; please see your letter H. of the 28th of July last.

I may add that the vessel has been laid up in fresh water since April 1931.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,

London.

SURVEYORS

Dear Sir,

Messrs. the Holland America Line reported to-day that they have sold their s.s. "MORBYK" to Italian Owners, subject to a certificate being granted for the vessel to proceed to an Italian port with a non-perishable cargo in order to be broken up.

I shall be very pleased to hear by wire if the Committee is agreeable to hold a similar survey on this vessel as approved in the case of their s.s. "KINDERDYK"; please see your letter H. of the 28th of July last. I may add that the vessel has been laid up in fresh water since April 1931.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

The Secretary,

London.

Referred to Mr. Spinks.
