

Phone message from Board of Trade :-

The Court of Enquiry into the loss of the "ENNISKILLEN" has been provisionally fixed to take place at Aberdeen on the 26th instant.

It is submitted Mr. Richardson, the Ship Surveyor at Aberdeen, be instructed to attend the enquiry and to forward as complete a report as possible of the proceedings day by day. He should obtain as much technical data as possible regarding the stability, draught, trim and loading of the vessel.

[Handwritten signatures]
13.10.27.

It has since been noted that Mr. Richardson and Mr. Fitzgerald have been cited as witnesses at this enquiry.

No need to do anything further
