LOYD'S REGISTER

LONDON
R. for new own

Dear Sir,

We have your letter dated 15th. March Reference "H".

We have just sold the S.S. "Author" to a Company styled the Italian General Shipping Limited, of London, as she lies with a guarantee that she will be broken up in Italy. We believe the Buyers' intention is to apply for permission to carry a cargo of Coals from this country to Italy in the steamer before she is broken up. We have given them no certificate of seaworthiness and they know that the year of grace allowed for the second special survey No:2 has expired. Delivery of the steamer is expected to be taken in about a fortnight.

In the circumstances perhaps it will be unnecessary for us to sign the forms you sent, which are returned herewith, but if you still wish them to be signed we shall be agreeable to do so.

Yours faithfully,

J. B. Watson Hughes
