

Lloyd's Register of British & Foreign Shipping,

55, Fawcett Street,

Sunderland, 3rd, October, 1914

LOYDS REGISTER
LONDON.
5 OCT 1914
X

Reference

M.

The Secretary,
London,

Sir,

In reply to your letter with regard to the first entry report No.26242 on the new steamer "BEEMAH" I beg to state that the tank margin plates are .46 thick and that the rivets in the frames are spaced as required by the Rules and desire to express regret for the clerical errors.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Wagner

624
tee.
baw
sed thick are

Referred to the Chief Ship Surveyor.

70ms

OCT 5 1914

M
5-1074

* Inspected the vessel

* This is I

* The vessel was found to be in compliance with the provisions of the Act of 1894 and the regulations thereunder. The vessel was found to be in compliance with the provisions of the Act of 1894 and the regulations thereunder. The vessel was found to be in compliance with the provisions of the Act of 1894 and the regulations thereunder. The vessel was found to be in compliance with the provisions of the Act

* This

* Inspected

* The vessel was found to be in compliance with the provisions of the Act

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED

© 2020

Lloyd's Register
Foundation

