6th January, 1917.

Dear Sirs,

With reference to the s.s. "ARDGASK", built by Messrs. Russell & Co., at Port Glasgow, I have to inform you that the Greenock Surveyors state the vessel has proceeded to Barry, and that in order to complete the survey on the hull and machinery respectively, the tunnel watertight door and the boiler collision chocks require to be examined.

I shall be glad if you will give the case the necessary attention and report in due course.

I am, Dear Sirs,

Yours faithfully,

Secretary.

The Surveyors,

BARRY.
