Bristol, 21st November 1932.

ENCLOSURE.

Dear Sir,

I enclose herewith the freeboard survey report on the s.s. "JACOBUS", and regret the same is not complete owing to the short notice obtained, and inaccessibility of various compartments locked up.

The vessel has sailed from Sharpness to Fowey, and the Owners state that any items necessary to complete the survey will be dealt with there, and a list of the items has been forwarded to the Surveyors for their guidance.

I am, Dear Sir,

Yours faithfully,

John. L. Gwynne

The Secretary,
